Admission to the morning services will be by tickets distributed to the congregation and people whose efforts to raise the $135,000 debt on the church have made its consecration possible.

Mgr. Satolil was expected to go to Brooklyn this afternoon. Bishop McDonnell this morning said he could not tell at what hour the Apostolic Delegate would arrive. His secretary, Father Barrett, came over to New York Fearly this morning to escort the Monsignor across the river.

Mgr. Satolil was to be received by Bishop McDonnell and his official advisers, Vicar-Generals May, of Holy Trinity, and McNamara, of St. Mary's; Father Thomas Taaffe, of St. Patrick's; Father Thomas Taaffe, of St. Patrick's; Father O'Connell, of St. Mary's Star of the Sea; Father Ward, of St. Charles Borromee's, and Father Hartnett, President of St. John's College.

Bishop McDonell was unable to say what Mgr. Satolil would do this afternoon. He might remain indoors to prepare for to-morrow's services at St. Agnes's Church or go out for a drive through Prospect Park, the Bishop said.

Wrecked in Maryland.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Oct. 14—Baitimore and Ohio train No. 46, through express from Chicago, was badly wrecked about midnight at Miller's Hill, between Sleepy Creek and Cherry Run, about seventy miles east of here.

The train was about six hours late and was running at a high rate of speed. The rains had loosened the earth of the mountain where the wreck occurred, and the result was a heavy innessing. Engineer James Dyche and Fireman Charles Fennel were injured, the latter badly.

The train struck the slide square, and the engine and six cars were turned over on the left side. The track was torn up for 250 yards or more.

The train was a solid express, bound for New York, and carried few passensers.
